

THE WEEKEND AUSTRALIAN

MAGAZINE

Spring 2005

2005 WEST CAPE HOWE ROSÉ

This lively pink wine is made from cabernet franc, the lighter, more fragrant cousin of cabernet sauvignon. Not unlike the pink wines from Anjou in France's Loire Valley (also made from cab franc), it has leafy blackcurrant flavours, and is dry and dusty in the mouth.

Good for glugging with antipasto.

Max Allen