

The Weekend Australian Magazine Future Red

West Cape Howe Tempranillo 2006

19-20th May 2007

The Spanish red grape tempranillo is clearly comfortable in warm parts of Australia such as the Perth Hills, where the grapes for this wine were grown. The 2006 vintage was cool though, so there's a welcome spicy edge to the usual rich, dark cherry fruit.

Max Allen

"..... there's a welcome spicy edge to the usual rich, dark cherry fruit."

Max Allen